Baron Tours, Inc. has been an essential part of the Annual National Prayer Breakfast (NPB) since 2005. Their professionalism and attention to detail each year has overcome the unforeseen logistical challenges often encountered in serving our guests. Each year Sam Halabi has personally attended to the needs of my staff and others coordinating this event. Over three days our volunteers serve visiting dignitaries from over 160 countries. Representatives from all branches of our government rely on Sam and Baron Tours to transport large groups back and forth. I have never once experienced a drop in service; in fact each year the requests for their service have gone up. Sam has always been right there to save the day. In all the years I've personally managed events I have never come across a vendor who has performed beyond my expectations, economically and with consistent reliability. He is truly indispensable.
